

Master Services Inc. Privacy policy

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1. Safety and inviolability of «Master Services Inc.». Clients' data are the main priorities for the Company. The present document describes the storage and protection processes regarding information obtained by the Company from the Clients.

1.2. In case of personal data and/or contact details change, the Client is obliged to notify the Company of such changes. Personal data change notification has to be filled in by the Client himself by hand in set form and sent to the Client support department to support@mfxbroker.com

2. INFORMATION PROVIDED BY THE CLIENTS

2.1. In order to improve service quality, to maintain the most effective communication, as well as to understand the Clients' needs better, it is necessary to provide the Company with the following information:

- Information provided by the Client during personal wallet and trading accounts registration procedure, including (but not limited)
- name, address, sex, age, social status;
- Information provided by the Client during personal data certification, obtained from copies of identity documents;
- Information provided by the Client during payment details certification;
- Information provided by the Client in case of personal data and/or contact details change;
- Information obtained as a result of execution of Clients' orders to conduct trading operations with financial instruments on international financial markets, including trading operation registers;
- Data obtained in the process of financial transactions between the Client and the Company, including funds deposit and withdrawal operations.

2.2. The Client guarantees that personal and contact details provided in the registration form are valid.

2.3. The Client guarantees the authenticity of documents submitted during personal data certification, as well as the authenticity of documents in case of personal data and/or contact details change.

2.4. The Client accepts that his/her personal data will be saved and stored in the Company's database.

2.5. The Company guarantees that the information provided by the Client during registration and further interaction with the Company, is confidential and not a subject to disclose.

3. INFORMATION SECURITY

3.1. The Company cares about the safety and security of Clients' personal data. The Company uses modern safety technologies to ensure personal information security and adheres to strict rules of personal information exchange and access within the Company. The Company's employees are obliged to follow all procedures to ensure Clients' personal data confidentiality.

3.2. The Client is fully responsible for the confidentiality and usage of usernames and passwords provided by the Company for its services.

3.3. The Client agrees to assume exclusive responsibility for all activities that result from usage of usernames and/or passwords, provided for the Company's services.

4. INFORMATION USAGE

4.1. Becoming a user of the Company's services, the Client confirms his/her consent to use his/her personal data in accordance with the present Privacy policy.

4.2. The Company may disclose information only with consent of the Client.

4.3. Disclosure of the Client's information can be performed only in accordance with international law in force on request of law-court, law enforcement agencies, as well as in other cases stipulated by international law.

5. CONTACT INFORMATION

5.1. On all matters relating to the Company's Privacy policy, please contact us on email support@mfxbroker.com