

Risk notification

1. PURPOSE OF NOTIFICATION

1.1. The purpose of the Notification is to notify the Client of information about risks concerning conduction of trading operations on financial markets and warn the Client of possible financial losses that can be caused by these risks. This Notification cannot include complete information about all potential risks due to variety of possible situations.

1.2. For the purposes of this Notification the term risk in regards to conduction of trades on financial markets is understood as the possibility of events that cause financial losses for the Client.

2. LEVERAGE EFFECT

2.1. When conducting trade operations in the terms of margin trading, relatively small change of instrument's price can have a significant impact on the balance of Client's trading account due to the leverage effect.

3. HIGH INSTRUMENTS' PRICE VOLATILITY

3.1. Financial instruments have large intraday price change ranges. In some cases price changes for financial instruments can be so fast that the Client cannot be guaranteed accurate execution of his/her orders.

4. TECHNICAL RISK

4.1. Client assumes the risk of financial losses due to failures of information, communication, electrical and other systems of the third parties.

5. ABNORMAL MARKET CONDITIONS

5.1. The Client acknowledges that during abnormal market conditions the Client's orders execution time can increase.

6. FORCE MAJEURE CONDITIONS

6.1. Force majeure conditions include:

- any action, event or phenomenon, which, in the reasonable opinion of the Master Services Inc., leads to destabilization of the market or markets, one or more instruments;
- suspension of market operation, its liquidation or closure, or absence of any event on which the Company bases quotes, or implementation of non - standard trading conditions in any market or in regards to any of such events;
- events that took place due to reasons beyond the control of the Company that impede provision of the Company's services to the Clients.

6.2. Having reasonable grounds, Master Services Inc. has the right to determine the limits of force - majeure conditions. If force majeure events take place, the Company has the right to notify Clients of such events.

6.3. Client agrees that the Company or any third party providing the services of the Company will not be held responsible for any loss or damage caused by force majeure events.

6.4. In the case of force majeure conditions, Master Services Inc. has the right (without infringements to any other rights of the Company in accordance with the provisions of the client agreement) to take any of the following steps at any time without prior written notification:

- to increase margin requirements;
- to close any or all open positions at the price which the Company considers fair;
- to stop or modify one or all provisions of the client agreement while force majeure conditions make such provisions impossible to adhere to;
- to take or not to take any actions in regards to Clients and the Company, if the Company basing on reasonable grounds considers it appropriate under the force majeure conditions;
- review financial obligations of the Company to the Client with introduction of changes to the appropriate trading operation register entry concerning the Client's transactions conducted under the force majeure conditions.

7. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

7.1. The Client assumes responsibility for ensuring protection of equipment and software on his/her side from virus, hacker and phishing attacks. In case of a phishing attack the Company notifies the Client thereof by any communication means listed in paragraph 7.1. of the Contract of service provided on international financial markets. The Company is not responsible for financial damage aggrieved to the Client resulted from a phishing attack.

7.2. The present Notification is not intended to make the Client refuse to carry out operations on financial markets. Otherwise, its aim is to help the Client to estimate the risks of this type of business and select the right trading strategy.